

Civil Injunction

NORTH SHIELDS

This is SARAH CAMPBELL

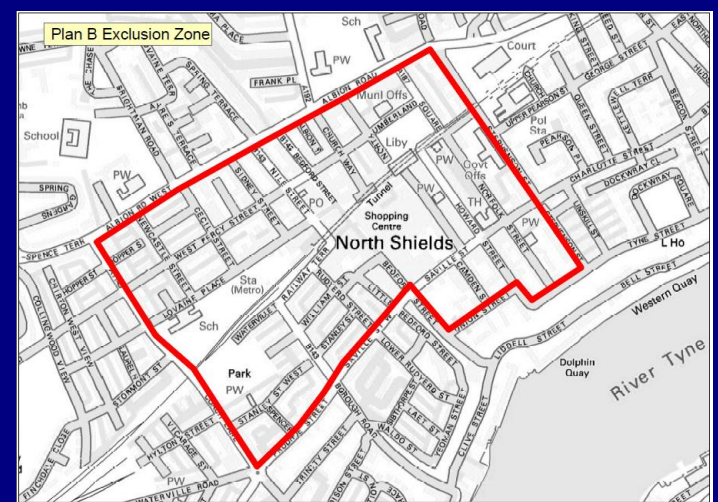

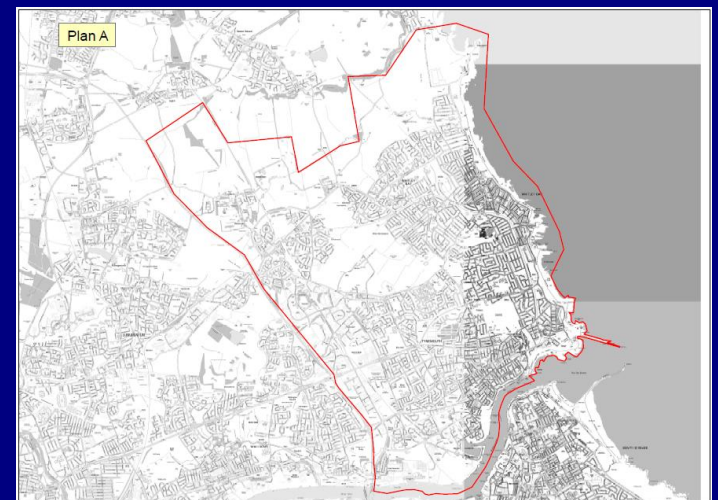

She has been made the subject of a Civil Injunction until 21st JULY 2018. She risks arrest and could be jailed for up to two years if she breaches this order.

North Shields County Court issued a Civil Injunction prohibiting SARAH CAMPBELL from behaving in an anti-social manner in the borough and from entering a part of NORTH SHIELDS (as shown on the maps in red)

If you see SARAH CAMPBELL in the exclusion zone, between 8am and 8pm, please let us know.

She is forbidden (whether by herself or by instructing or encouraging any other person) from:

- Engaging in or using foul, abusive or offensive behaviour or language within the North Tyneside Council area east of the A19 road (as shown marked red on the attached Plan A) at any time.
- Assaulting, threatening harassing or distressing, any person within the North Tyneside Council area east of the A19 road (as shown marked red on the attached Plan A) at any time.
- Entering the area in North Shields Town Centre between the hours of 8am and 8pm bounded by A1149 Coach Lane to the west, A193 Albion Road West / Albion Road to the north; Stephenson Street to the east, and Prudhoe Street / Saville Street West / Bedford Street and Union Street to the south (as shown marked red on the attached Plan B - Exclusion Zone). Travel on the Tyne & Wear Metro is permitted without alighting at North Shields Metro Station.

The Injunction is to remain in force until 4.00pm on 21st July 2018 and that a Power of Arrest (pursuant to s.4 Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014) be attached to terms b and c of the Injunction
