

Making more of our own decisions in the North-East of England

Question sheet

EasyRead version

Please answer these questions and tell us what you think.

Please tell us by Thursday 23 March 2023.

The Government is asking people in the North-East of England if they want to make more decisions for themselves on things like transport, education, jobs and support for local business.

This is instead of Government making them and is called devolution.

The EasyRead information leaflet with this answer sheet gives you more information about the idea.

A £4.2bn devolution deal for the region has been agreed with government

Make sure your voice is heard on the changes planned as part of the deal
