Request:

The total amount your authority has spent on consultancies about all types of re-organisation - for example, combined authority re-organisation or unitarisation - between 2015 and now.

Could you break this figure down by each year starting at 2015/16, followed by 2016/17, 2017/18, 2018/19, 2019/20 and 2020/2021.

Please break down the total spent on consultancies each year by the following categories: KPMG, PwC, Deloitte, EY and 'Other'. Please include any consultancies that are not the aforementioned four in the 'Other' category.

As such, please could your response be laid out as below.

Response:

A search of the category management records for North Tyneside Council has been carried out for these years, looking for consultancy spend on re-organisation. One record matched this search for a consultancy project linked to reorganisation in 2018-19. The North of Tyne Combined Authority is a separate organisation to the Council, and it wasn't created in relation to anything to do with a reorganisation from the Council.

Total spent in 2015/16:
