

North Tyneside Council

Reference: FOI4147

Request:

I wish to make an FOI request to see the Covenant (I believe that is the correct term) under which Tynemouth Market at Tynemouth station was established, with particular reference to the stipulation that 4 days per year should be designated for "cultural events".

Response:

There is no covenant relating to Tynemouth Station. The award made from Sea Change Wave 3 via Department of Culture, Media and Sport in 2009 was conditional upon the Station refurbishment going ahead and that the location would be used for cultural events. There was no stipulation as to the number or character of such events.
