Request:

I am writing to request a complete list of the exclusion criteria on which a parking ticket can be appealed:

Response:

The statutory grounds on which challenges/representations may be made are set out below:

- The alleged contravention did not occur.
- I was never the owner of the vehicle in question or
I had ceased to be its owner before the date on which the alleged contravention occurred
or
I became its owner after the date on which the alleged contravention occurred.
- The vehicle had been permitted to remain at rest in the place in question by a person who was in control of the vehicle without the consent of the owner.
- You are a vehicle-hire firm and the vehicle was on hire under a hiring agreement and the hirer had signed a statement acknowledging liability for any Penalty Charge Notice issued during the hiring period.
- The penalty charge exceeded the amount applicable in the circumstances of the case.
- There has been a procedural impropriety by the enforcement authority.
- The Order which is alleged to have been contravened in relation to the vehicle concerned is invalid.
- The Notice should not have been served because the penalty charge had already been paid:
  - i. in full; or
  - ii. at the discounted rate set in accordance with Schedule 9 to the Traffic Management Act 2004 Act and within the time specified in paragraph 1(h) of the Schedule to the Civil Enforcement of Parking Contraventions (England) General Regulations 2007.

In addition, the Council will consider any reasonable mitigating circumstances in accordance with the enforcement guidelines published on the Council website
